'Love one another; Always do our best; Take care of ourselves and the world around us'

26th April 2024

Dear parents and carers,

We are thrilled to share with you the wonderful experience we had during Haringey's NSPCC's PANTS Week at St Mary's Priory! This week was dedicated to empowering our children with essential knowledge about staying safe, and we were fortunate to have a special visit from the NSPCC's lovable mascot, Pantosaurus!

During PANTS Week, our school community came together to learn about the NSPCC's PANTS rule, which teaches children that their body belongs to them and helps them understand what is appropriate and inappropriate. Through interactive sessions, engaging activities, and insightful discussions, our students gained invaluable knowledge on how to protect themselves from potential harm.

The NSPCC's PANTS campaign is of utmost importance as it equips children with the tools and confidence to recognize and speak up about any uncomfortable situations they may encounter. By understanding the PANTS rule – Privates are private, Always remember your body belongs to you, No means no, Talk about secrets that upset you, and Speak up, someone can help – our children are empowered to stay safe and seek help if needed.

We believe that educating our children about personal safety is crucial, and PANTS Week provided a fantastic platform to reinforce these essential lessons in a fun and supportive environment.

We encourage parents and guardians to explore the NSPCC's website's dedicated parent section, where you can find useful resources and information to support conversations about staying safe with your children. Visit NSPCC Website Parent Section to access these valuable resources.

Thank you for your continued support in keeping our children safe and informed.

Warm regards,

Mrs Reynolds

Heavenly Father,

We come before you with hearts full of gratitude for the gift of childhood and the innocence it holds. We ask for your guidance and protection over each child within our community.

Grant them the wisdom to recognize what is safe and what is not, and the courage to speak up when they feel uncomfortable or unsure. May they always feel empowered to express themselves and seek help when needed.

Shield their hearts and minds from harm, and surround them with a circle of love and support that knows no bounds. Help us, as adults, to be vigilant guardians of their safety, nurturing their trust and confidence in us.

In your compassionate embrace, may they find solace and strength, knowing that they are cherished beyond measure. Bless our efforts to create a safe and nurturing environment where every child can thrive and flourish.

We offer this prayer with hopeful hearts, trusting in your boundless love and protection.

Amen.
